Descendants of Asa Cook

Generation No. 1

1. ASA[1] COOK[1] was born 1811 in Portland, Cumberland, Maine, and died Aft. 1895 in Probably MO. He married LYDIA LOUISE FERRIS 17 February 1839 in Dearborn County, Indiana[2], daughter of SILVESTER FERRIS and RHODA KING. She was born 19 April 1812 in Buffalo, Erie, New York, and died 04 June 1895 in Grandin, Ripley, Missouri[3].

Notes for ASA COOK:
Death Certificate of daughter, Sarah Jane Cook Giffin states her father, Asa Cook was born in Portland, Maine AND in an article about Sanford "Sannie" Cook (Asa's son) by Aunt Blanche (a newspaper writer), it is stated that the family comes from Maine.

I was given the birth date of 28 February 1811 by Daisy Joan Brock Allard; BUT she may have been giving me information from the Casco Book (next paragraph) and not information from a Bible. Asa and Lydia's first son, Sumner's pension records gave the age of Asa as 80 years in 1891, confirming the birth year to be 1811.

"The History of Casco, Maine by Melissa Jill Kluge, p 309. When the author was contacted, she could not tell where or who her information came from. In this book, there is a Hezkiah Cook who had 13 children, among them was a son, Asa and his birthdate is listed as the same date as the one Daisy Joan Allred gave me for Asa in 1982. BUT the book lists the Casco Maine Asa as dying 13 October 1834. Could he have been declared dead because he went against his father, Hezekiah's religious beliefs?

1840 Ohio, Hamilton County, Crosby Twp., Roll 400, page 383
1 male under age of 5 = Sumner (He was born in Ohio)
1 male 30 to 40 = Asa
1 female 10 to 15 = unknown
1 female 20 to 30 = Lydia
The family is living on sections of land next to Moses Cook, Asa had brother Moses. Moss is 11 years older than Asa, per the Casco Book info.

Moses Cook possibly brother of Asa; these two men listed together

Do not know about a Thomas? Probably was Sumner, but could have been a cousin? However, age and birthplace is correct for Sumner. Sumner enlisted in Civil War in July 1861. The rest of the information is accurate.

In household of John W. Neer and Melvina L. Neer (daughter of Asa & Lydia)

John W. Neer	38	Farmer	born Maryland	Father b. Maryland	Mother b. Maryland
Melvina L. Neer	22	Keeping House	born Illinois	Father b. Maine	Mother b. New York
Daisy M. Neer	1	Daughter	born Nebraska
Asa Cook	68	Farmer	born Maine	Father b. Maine	Mother b. Maine
Lydia L. Cook	68	House Keeper	born New York	Father b. New York	Mother b. New York

This following information is found in the Pension of Lydia Cook for her son, Sumner who was killed in the Civil War.

1. An affidavit, dated 22 August 1891, William T. Preston of Steward in Lee County, IL, stated he had known Asa and Lydia for 42 years (about 1849).

2. Affidavit (dated 5 September 1891), states that A.A. Burell and Wm G. Collins of Dunlap, KS has known Asa and Lydia for a period of 9 years (about 1882). "That Asa has been a cripple for years and unable to make proper provision and suitable support for his wife and himself. They have for many years lived with their children and received support from them."

3. Another affidavit in 1892, Physician Dr. C. F. Randall of Dunlap, KS, stated he had been Lydia's physician for 3 years.

The pension record states that Lydia died in June 1895 in County near Grandin, Missouri. However, Grandin is not in that county now.

A pension application was made for Asa to continue Lydia's pension, but it was abandoned, giving the possibility Asa had died shortly after Lydia...his age in 1895 would have been 84 years.

LOOKING FOR THE BURIAL PLACE OF BOTH LYDIA AND ASA. BELIEVE THEM TO BE LINKED TO MELVINA AND HER HUSBAND, JOHN AS THEY WERE LIVING IN THAT HOUSEHOLD IN 1870 AND 1880. Also an interview article of son Sanford Cook (at age 85 when interview was made). It is stated that Asa was disabled all his life.

Have found an Asa Cook served in the Black Hawk War under the command of General Sumner. Could he have been a shoemaker/bootmaker for the military? Books on the Black Hawk did not give information to support this. Only that an Asa Cook served. War years 1831-1832, Asa would have been about 20 years. The Black Hawk War was in northern Illinois and southwestern Wisconsin.

More About ASA COOK:
Occupation: Stone Mason and Farmer

Notes for LYDIA LOUISE FERRIS:
It is stated in son, Sumner's pension record, Lydia in Ripley County, Missouri died near Grandin. According to 1896 U.S. Atlas, Grandin was Carter County, not Ripley. Today Grandin is now in Carter County. Copies of maps from website (http://www.livggenmi/com/carterMO.htm and http://wwwlivegenmi.com/ripleyMO.htm)

Correspondence with Jackie (tanimara@townsqr.com) who does cemetery lookups in Ripley County, MO. She did not find Lydia or Asa listed in her books, but suggested requesting someone to look in the Ripley Co, Vol. 4 book. Sent a note to Pamela Geisler Smith to do lookup in Vol. 4. No response.

Also had Daisy Anderson, Carter Co, MO USGENWEB canvassed the Carter County cemeteries lists and did not find the Cooks listed.

Children of ASA COOK and LYDIA FERRIS are:

i. SUMNER M.[2] COOK, b. 06 January 1840, Ohio; d. 20 July 1863, Vicksburg, Warren, Mississippi - Civil War.

Notes for SUMNER M. COOK:
Information from Roxie Johns, Newkirk, OK - Found in the trunk of Sanford Cook and Flossie Northcutt Johnson's old letters was an old leather Bible with the following written inside: Found on the battlefield by S.M. Cook, 20th Reg. Illinois Volunteers and given to S.A. Cook by Mother.

Company K, 20th Reg. Illinois Volunteer Infantry Roster & Record by Andrew L. Brown of Newark
http://www.rootsweb.com/~ilkendal/Military/CivilWar/INF020th/index.htm
Sumner enlisted April 1861. Died at Vicksburg, Mississippi of typhoid fever, July 20, 1863.

Checked Ancestry's Full Context of American Civil War Soldiers there was a match for Sumner M. Cook, Private, K Co. 20th Inf. Reg. Il, died at Vicksburg, Mississippi Hospital on 20 July 1863. Source: Roster of Officers and Enlisted Men. Abbreviation: IL Roster, Published on 1900. It also showed that Sumner M. Cook enlisted on 13 June 1861, a Private in the Union Army serving for the State of Illinois.

On Ancestry.com - Civil War Pension Cards found that both Asa and Lydia had requested pensions from the government for the loss of Sumner (received in Dec. 2000). The certificate numbers for Lydia was 338885 and was approved as a Dependent Mother's pension, she received $12 a month. It began August 27, 1890, Lydia's age was 78, they were living in Dunlap, Morris county, Kansas at that time. Lydia and Asa also received two payments of $100, totaling $200, for Sumner's death.
Asa's request application for a pension after Lydia's death (#617630) was filed in Grandin, Ripley county, Missouri on 6 July 1895, Asa was 84 years old. The application was stamped "Abandoned" with the last date marked of 29 Oct 1895.

Sumner's middle initial "M" could be for Mead, his great grandmother's maiden name?????

vi. SANFORD ASA COOK, b. 04 April 1852, Kendall County, Illinois[6]; d. 27 October 1945, Medford, Grant, Oklahoma.

Notes for SANFORD ASA COOK:
Warren Beggs says Uncle "Sannie" taught him how to smoke.

Sanford lived with family most of his life, a good part of the time with his older brother, John K. Cook in Medford, Oklahoma. After John died, he lived with Elise Cook Northcutt, his niece and her husband, Warren Northcutt, who was the Sheriff of Grant County. Sannie took care of the jail for his keep. In reading old letters left to his niece, Flossie Northcutt Johnson (Elise and Warren's daughter), he also worked on farms and lived with family all his life. He never married, although letters indicate that there were women in his life. He also worked in Washington State where Elsie's brothers, Clyde and Ira lived. Pictures we have of him, show him with white hair and a white beard, this would be in the 1930-40's.

Obituary appeared in the Medford Oklahoma Patriot Star, Thursday, November 1, 1945

Sannie is just a nick name. On all his legal documents you'll find Sanford Asa Cook. But don't ever look for a "Mrs. Sanford Asa Cook" 'cause there "ain't none." How this agreeable likeable man with his sunny disposition and good nature ever went through life in single harness has been a topic of conjecture for years past. Perhaps way way back, there was a love affair that went on the rock--but if this is so, he has never let any one know it--not even his niece Elsie Northcutt, in whose home he has lived since before she was born. The Cooks were originally from Maine. They kept moving westward through Indiana, Illinois, Kansas and finally into Oklahoma. Sannie's father was a stone mason as well as a farmer. When the Civil War broke out, the two oldest Cook boys enlisted. Sannie, of course, was too young and the father was disabled. At the end of the conflict, a farm was bought in Lee county and when Sannie was old enough, he took over the job of farming it. At the age of twenty-one years (1873), he went into northern Kansas, and got a job of threshing. He had learned the same trade that his father had. In this new country where buildings were going up over night like mushrooms after a June shower, he spent many years as a stone mason. He hauled the lumber and laid the foundation for the second store building erected in the town of McPherson, Kansas.

In the meantime, his brother John had taken a claim on the Kaw reservation. When not employed at his trade, Sannie stayed on the farm with his brother and family. A quarry close by gave employment for seven years. Shortly after the race into Oklahoma, the John Cook family moved onto a rented farm southwest of Medford. When the daughter, Elsie was 12 years old, Mrs. Cook died. Sannie made his home, as before, with his brother. After her mother's death, Elsie kept house for her father and usually accompanied him whenever he had a long drive to make. One day, at the home of George Wright, when the Cook's drove in on some errand, they met a young chap named Warren Northcutt who lived with his parents on their claim southeast of Wakita.
At this time the whole country was on tip toes over the appearance of a ghost, who, every night was seen by certain people. Children in the neighborhood slept at night with covers overs their heads, lest this mysterious ghost come in at the windows and snatch them up by the hair. Superstitious women made sure that the water bucket was filled and the morning's supply of fuel brought in before dark. Young boys just starting to "keep company" with neighboring farmers daughters rode out of their way a mile to the east or a mile to the west, to avoid passing this haunted spot, for the experience of Ichabod Crane was still fresh in their minds, having read the classic in school the previous winter. But young Warren Northcutt said that he wasn't afraid. Elsie also claimed that she'd like to meet "his nibs" face to face. So, on a certain night about a week later, Warren drove up to the Cook farm after Elsie. The night was dark and the wind was howling--just the kind of a night that spooks and witches and hobgoblins disport themselves. Warren headed his horse straight for the spot where the ghost was last seen. Fearing that Elsie would weaken, he kept asking her if she was scared. Each time the same answer: "Not yet." After driving back and forth for half an hour and never seeing or hearing a thing, they started back to Elsie's home. "You're a brave girl, Elsie" he said as he helped her out of the buggy. "I might have been scared a little bit" she replied, "if you had not been along." Say what you please--men like to be flattered just as much as women, and that little parting speech sent Warren Northcutt home feeling might sure of himself. Perhaps this was his initial of bravery. If so, he found out that he had it. Elsie found out that he had it and all these years he has been Sheriff for the people in Grant county have also found it out.
Warren and Elsie were married May 6, 1906 and rented a farm on half mile from the old Gilbert store west of Medford. Uncle Sannie went to live with them. As the babies came, this doting uncle took a new lease on life. He trotted them on his knee, played horse with them, let them ride with him on machinery in the field, bought dollies at Christmas and never forgot the sack of candy when he made a trip to town.
The three youngsters are grown. Flossie is a successful teacher in Grant county and will instruct the pupils at District No. 42 the coming year. Jimmie married James Smidl who is a newspaper man of Gunnison, Colorado. She and her charming little daughter, Sandra Lee are now visiting her parents. Vivian is the wife of Ralph Beggs. Twenty-four years ago, the Northcutts began living on a farm east of Jefferson and since they moved into the sheriffs quarters at the county jail, Vivian and her husband with their little son have made their home on the old farm.
Sannie thought his cup of happiness was filled to the rim with the first set of children to cuddle and love, but with these grandchildren coming on, he almost lives in a dream. With his eyesight enabling him to do his reading, a stroll over town a couple of times a day greeting old friends, a good home, a healthy appetite--what more could be desired? On his last birthday, April 4, Elsie Northcutt invited Ex Parker to a most wonderful birthday dinner. She expects to repeat it this coming April--an the next April--and the next.
It was O.K. for old King Cole to his pipe (Ex and Sannie don't smoke, although the latter nibbles at a plug of Horse Shoe occasionally)--and it is O.K. for the merry old soul to call for his bowl (our four-score-plus take nothing stronger than ginger ale)--with nothing but a little black knob to turn, to bring music of all kins and descriptions from all parts of the globe--these two sons from the old "Sucker" state of Illinois are enjoying to the fullest every waking hour.

From the History of Whatcom County (Washington) Vol. 2, complied by Lottie Roeder Roth 1926, pg. 531
I.J. Cook, the popular and efficient postmaster of Deming, has been identified with business interests of the community for more than twenty years and is largely responsible for its progress along educational lines. He was born December 8, 1872 and is a native of Des Moines, Iowa. His parents were John King and Rosetta (Phillips) Cook, the former a native of Indiana and the latter of Pennsylvania. They settle in Iowa in 1866 and later moved to Kansas. The father entered a homestead in Lyon County and subsequently migrated to Oklahoma, spending the remainder of his life in that state, in which the mother's demise also occurred.
I.J. Cook attended the public schools of Kansas and obtained his start in business life by clerking in stores. He came to Whatcom County in 1905 and opened a general store in Deming in partnership with H.B. Orr. Later he withdrew from the firm and became associated with D.A. Griffin & Company, general merchants. He disposed of his stock in the concern in 1921 and is now selling fire insurance. He is well informed on matters pertaining thereto and has established a profitable business, manifesting executive ability and good judgement in its management.
In 1904 Mr. Cook married Miss Jennie Holton, a native of Illinois and a daughter of Chandler Holton. The children of this union are: Mildred, now the wife of Norman Macaulay, of Deming; and John, who is attending the public schools. Mr. Cook is a stanch adherent of the republican part and since 1912 has been postmaster of Deming, discharging his duties in a highly creditable manner. He is an ardent advocate of the cause of education and for sixteen years was a member of the local school board. It was owing to his indefatigable efforts that Deming secured the new union high school, which was recently completed and represents an expenditure of one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars. Mr. Cook is identified with the Knights of Pythias and also belongs to Bellingham Lodge, No. 194, of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks. He has been actuated by an unselfish spirit of devotion to the general good and his influence upon the life of his community has been of the highest order.

Aug 1910
To Mrs. M.M. Brock, #84, LaHarpe, KS
Dear May, Ask Milt if this looks like any thing he ever seen before running wild in the bush. Think that makes people climb tree and such. Hope his father is better by this time and that all the rest of you are well. This card is not very good I have poor luck with this batch for some cause or other. You never have said if you have taken that trip you said you were going to take up to you know where, if you haven't let me know. Elsie

28 Sep 1910
To Mrs. M.M. Brock, #84 LaHarpe, KS
I don't remember whether I sent one of these to your or not. It's the kids and their collie puppie out on the cistern one day. If I sent you one you can give this to Aunt Jane. We are as well as usual, only I have a cold. We have been having some cool weather. One needs a good fire at night and mornings. Warren is hurrying to get his wheat all in will have about 50 or 55 acres I think. has some of sewed. will write when I can get some paper. As ever Elsie

Picture on card is of Warren and the Mules and daughter

Mr. Edwards is sick, most gone, so Elsie and Mrs. Edward is running things she wanted to get her a new dress she got awful tired doing the work While my are was sore but of course away from home is not so hard work and better pay.
John is thinking of going out that way with a load of apples to a place Tonkawa, or something like that and said he would like to have you meet him There he will write before he starts he is going to so many things well my time is up Rose

WHAT THIS LETTER TELLS US

John and Rose were living in Chautauqua, Montgomery County, Kansas in Aug 1899
Chautauqua is between 5-10miles from Sedan, where the train stops.
Train also went through Chautauqua, she was going to take the letter to the train.

They had apple trees and was thinking of going to Tonkawa, Kay County, OK which would have been about 100+ miles away.

She had hurt her arm and was getting better

Daughter Elsie was helping Mrs. Edwards, who appears elderly and Mr. Edwards appears to be near death's door. They probably live close to one another.

Sanford and Ira had sent pictures to Rose and John, she mentions they are very fine.

Look for records they may have made while living there:
Possible LAND RECORD???
City Directory – possible but doubtful?
Newspaper

QUESTIONS?
Where were Sanford and Ira?
Working for a farm? Where? probably in Oklahoma, since Tonkawa was mentioned

TESTIMONIALS

From people who have taken

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic

Whitesboro, Texas.

PARIS MEDICINE CO., St. Louis, Mo.

Gentlemen—I write you a few lines of gratitude. I think your Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is one of the best medicines in the world for Chills and Fever. I have three children that have been down with malarial fever for 18 months and have bought Chill medicines of all kinds and doctors' bills coming in all the time, until I sent to town and got three bottles of Grove's Tonic. My children are all well now, and it was your Tasteless Chill Tonic that did it. I cannot say too much in its behalf.

Yours truly,

JAMES D. ROBERTS.

Dallas, Texas.

PARIS MEDICINE CO., St. Louis, Mo.

Gentlemen—In using the Daily Democrat, I was attracted by the testimonials of your Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. I did not use it for Chills, however, but gave it to my children, and find it is a most excellent remedy for internal fever and besides is very invigorating to the general system. Yours truly,

R. W. LONGHEY.

Gentlemen:—I write this to say that for several years I have been selling Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic and can conscientiously recommend it to my customers as being the very best Chill medicine in the world. Nearly every man in this town had yellow fever last year except myself, and I attribute my escape to the use of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. On appearance of fever I began taking the Tonic and continued until I took six bottles. I was exposed to the fever daily for four weeks, helped to bury the dead, and never felt the least bit out of my natural condition. Anybody here will tell you that I was the only man able to keep open house during the siege.

If you see fit you may place this letter in the list of your recommendations.

GROVE'S

CHRONIC CHILL CURE

FOR

CHRONIC CHILLS AND MALARIA

Grove's Chronic Chill Cure is made especially for chronic chills; is double the strength of any other chill tonic—being made of fluid extracts—and is the strongest and most concentrated chill tonic ever placed on the market. It is not a patent medicine, being made of the following well-known vegetable tonics and blood purifiers:

FLUID EXTRACT PERUVIAN BARK
FLUID EXTRACT BLACK ROOT
FLUID EXTRACT POPLAR BARK
FLUID EXTRACT PRICKLY ASH BARK
FLUID EXTRACT DOGWOOD
FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA

It is a thin, spirituous liquid of a pleasant aromatic bitter taste, containing just enough spirits to make it acceptable to the stomach. Some people prefer a thin, spirituous liquid to a sweet or tasteless chill tonic, which is our reason for putting up both the old Standard Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic and the Grove's Chronic Chill Cure.

A Texas Man says: "Rather have Grove's than a Good Doctor."

Coulterville, Texas.

Gentlemen—I am glad to receive medicine ordered, for I do not feel safe without them. This may sound a little broad, but honestly, I had rather have your Grove's Chill Tonic in my store than to have a good doctor. About three years ago this old malaria fever got a hold of me and I spent $70.00 on medicines and doctors' bills, but could not get well. Several of my friends advised me to try Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic, but I have always had a natural dread of Chill Tonics, but one day I felt my chill coming on and, as I was near a drug store, I asked for a bottle of Grove's Tonic and took a dose right there and it kept off the chill. I have never needed the doctor since that time, either for myself or family.

There are seven of us and they all had a severe attack of Grip last fall and it cured all of us, consequently, I cannot praise it too highly.

Very truly yours,

C. ZIPPRIAN.

PARIS MEDICINE CO., St. Louis, Mo.

Gentlemen—I keep in stock ten different preparations for the cure of Malarial diseases and Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic sales more than equal all the rest. It is as near a specific as can be made.

Yours truly,

E. W. BARTLESON,

G. H. Collins, Davis, Indian Territory, writes:

"The reason I make it four dozen instead of three, is first, because that will be two cases, two dozen to case; second, because think, with what Chill Tonic I have, that will run me for three or four months, when I can buy on cash basis. In six or seven years' experience in selling drugs, will say I never had a better seller than your Tonic."

THIS BOY'S NAME IS

LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE CRIM

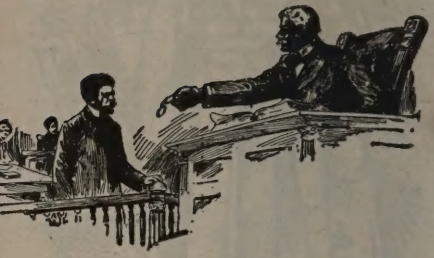
Read the following Letter from his Mother:

I have used your Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets for two years, and I find that it is the best medicine I have ever used in my family for colds, la grippe and headaches. Our eldest son was very low with pneumonia, and as we attribute his recovery to Laxative Bromo Quinine, we named our little baby "Laxative Bromo Quinine," on account of the deep gratitude we felt. He is a fine baby boy, and we call him "Bromo." "Bromo" is now sixteen months old and is fat and in fine health. As "Bromo" is the first child I ever heard of named after a medicine, I thought it would be of interest to you to hear about him.

MRS. LIZZIE CRIM, Asheworth, Texas.

Laxative Bromo Quinine

IS A VALID TRADE-MARK AND MUST NOT BE IMITATED



We recently won a suit in the United States Circuit Court for the District of Indiana, establishing the validity of Laxative Bromo Quinine as a Trade-Mark, and received a perpetual injunction against Mr. Newton C. Davis, of Frankfort, Indiana, for using similar words to describe a medical preparation of his manufacture.

On account of the popularity of Laxative Bromo Quinine, it still has a few imitations put up under similar names, which are calculated to deceive the public, and in order to get the genuine article be sure to look for this signature, on every box. Suit will be instituted at once against any and all infringers.

Gentlemen:—I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to your Godsend to humanity. During the spring of 1899, I contracted malaria fever in one of the low sections of this state and the following summer began having Fever and Chills. I tried all kinds of so-called Chill Tonics, but they did me no good. After having forty chills and being reduced to a mere skeleton, I began taking your Tasteless Chill Tonic and am perfectly well. My dear cousin:-

Guess that I owe you a letter and spect you think that it is about time I am answering so here goes. I returned from my vacation last Monday. Not because I wanted to but because I was needed so badly at the office, I thought best to return. I had a book-keeper in my place but she proved very unsatisfactory and the butter man was sick, most of the time I was gone consequently Mr. O. had most every thing to look after himself. He is not use to looking after every thing so it worried him to a certain extent. Had they gotten along all right at the office, don't think that I would have returned to K.C. I had several good positions offered me there, in fact I worked three days , but when I found out how things were going at home, thought best to return. I had a nice time, while I was away, but did not get to stay long enough. I spent X'mas week in Chicago with Edith and family and New Years week in La Porte with Bessie and family. They both have nice homes, are well and enjoying life to the fullest extent. I miss the children so much. Edith's little girl, Doris, is only four and one-half years old but she is as large as a girl of seven. Bessie's baby is one and one half years old and is as large as a boy of three. I received your last letter, your cards which you sent to K.C., the ones you sent to Chicago and the nice X'mas present which you sent me, found awaiting me when I returned from Chicago. Many thanks for it. I did not send you any thing this X'mas for I didn't know whether you would receive it or not, I mean, didn't know whether Uncle Sam would deliver it or not. I sent you a drinking cup last year for X'mas and you never acklowledged receiving it, so don't know whether you received it or not . It might have been lost in the mail. When I returned home from Chicago, I also found a letter here waiting me from Tude Ferris, Uncle Edwin's youngest girl, telling me of the death of her father. He died the 4th of Oct, she sent me a letter and I never received it. Sister Edith sent Uncle and Aunt an X'mas card wishing them a Merry X'mas and that is the way they found out that we did not know of his death. Guess that he just died of old age. He was 84 years old . He didn't know his family, for quite a while before he died but think, she said, that he recognized them just before he passed away. We are having much unsettled weather this season which is causing lots of sickness, especially the Grip. Week ago last Sunday it was down to two below Zero, which was the coldest of the season, but it didn't last very long for it soon turned warm again. This morning it was a whole lot colder with a keen wind blowing. Think that it is getting colder all of the time. As it is most time to go home, I will close with love and best wishes to all for a prosperous coming year, as ever

Notes

Warren Beggs says Uncle "Sannie" taught him how to smoke.

Sanford lived with family most of his life, a good part of the time with his older brother, John K. Cook in Medford, Oklahoma. After John died, he lived with Elise Cook Northcutt, his niece and her husband, Warren Northcutt, who was the Sheriff of Grant County. Sannie took care of the jail for his keep. In reading old letters left to his niece, Flossie Northcutt Johnson (Elise and Warren's daughter), he also worked on farms and lived with family all his life. He never married, although letters indicate that there were women in his life. He also worked in Washington State where Elsie's brothers, Clyde and Ira lived. Pictures we have of him, show him with white hair and a white beard, this would be in the 1930-40's.

Obituary appeared in the Medford Oklahoma Patriot Star, Thursday, November 1, 1945
SANFORD ASA COOK
Sanford Asa Cook was born April 4, 1853 in Kendall, Illinois and departed this life Saturday, October 27, 1945 at the age of 92 years, 7 months and 23 days. When a young man he moved with his parents to Dunlap, Kansas and in later years he came to Oklahoma and made his home with his niece, Mrs. W.A. Northcutt, until the time of his death. At the age of 16 years he joined the Methodist Church and was always a member of the choir. He was a life member of the Knights of Pythias. He loved sports of all kins, attending all games as long as his health would permit. His father and mother preceded him in death, also three brothers and three sisters. Other relatives left to mourn his death are 5 nieces: Mrs. W.A. Northcutt, Medford; Mrs. Harve Brock, Iola, Kansas; Mrs. Mae Brock, Blackwell; Mrs. Wayne Beattie, Carlyle, Illinois; Mrs. Daisy Robertson, Van Buren, Missouri; and 5 nephews, Ira G. Cook, Demming, Washington; Clyde Cook, Bellingham, Washington; Frank Giffin, Vergennes, Illinois; Roy S. Giffin, Elkville, Illinois; and Harry Neer, Van Buren, Missouri, and a number of great nieces and nephews and a host of friends.

This article appeared in the Medford, OK newspaper
AUNT BLANCHE WRITES OF 'EX' PARKER AND SANNIE COOK, GRANT OLD-TIMERS
Natives of Illinois, They Came Early to Northen Oklahoma, Have Raised Their Families, Passed Four-Score and Five, Are Still Active
Sannie is just a nick name. On all his legal documents you'll find Sanford Asa Cook. But don't ever look for a "Mrs. Sanford Asa Cook" 'cause there "ain't none." How this agreeable likeable man with his sunny disposition and good nature ever went through life in single harness has been a topic of conjecture for years past. Perhaps way way back, there was a love affair that went on the rock--but if this is so, he has never let any one know it--not even his niece Elsie Northcutt, in whose home he has lived since before she was born.
The Cooks were originally from Maine. They kept moving westward through Indiana, Illinois, Kansas and finally into Oklahoma. Sannie's father was a stone mason as well as a farmer. When the Civil War broke out, the two oldest Cook boys enlisted. Sannie, of course, was too young and the father was disabled. At the end of the conflict, a farm was bought in Lee county and when Sannie was old enough, he took over the job of farming it. At the age of twenty-one years (1873), he went into northern Kansas, and got a job of threshing. He had learned the same trade that his father had. In this new country where buildings were going up over night like mushrooms after a June shower, he spent many years as a stone mason. He hauled the lumber and laid the foundation for the second store building erected in the town of McPherson, Kansas.
In the meantime, his brother John had taken a claim on the Kaw reservation. When not employed at his trade, Sannie stayed on the farm with his brother and family. A quarry close by gave employment for seven years. Shortly after the race into Oklahoma, the John Cook family moved onto a rented farm southwest of Medford. When the daughter, Elsie was 12 years old, Mrs. Cook died. Sannie made his home, as before, with his brother. After her mother's death, Elsie kept house for her father and usually accompanied him whenever he had a long drive to make. One day, at the home of George Wright, when the Cook's drove in on some errand, they met a young chap named Warren Northcutt who lived with his parents on their claim southeast of Wakita.
At this time the whole country was on tip toes over the appearance of a ghost, who, every night was seen by certain people. Children in the neighborhood slept at night with covers overs their heads, lest this mysterious ghost come in at the windows and snatch them up by the hair. Superstitious women made sure that the water bucket was filled and the morning's supply of fuel brought in before dark. Young boys just starting to "keep company" with neighboring farmers daughters rode out of their way a mile to the east or a mile to the west, to avoid passing this haunted spot, for the experience of Ichabod Crane was still fresh in their minds, having read the classic in school the previous winter. But young Warren Northcutt said that he wasn't afraid. Elsie also claimed that she'd like to meet "his nibs" face to face. So, on a certain night about a week later, Warren drove up to the Cook farm after Elsie. The night was dark and the wind was howling--just the kind of a night that spooks and witches and hobgoblins disport themselves. Warren headed his horse straight for the spot where the ghost was last seen. Fearing that Elsie would weaken, he kept asking her if she was scared. Each time the same answer: "Not yet." After driving back and forth for half an hour and never seeing or hearing a thing, they started back to Elsie's home. "You're a brave girl, Elsie" he said as he helped her out of the buggy. "I might have been scared a little bit" she replied, "if you had not been along." Say what you please--men like to be flattered just as much as women, and that little parting speech sent Warren Northcutt home feeling might sure of himself. Perhaps this was his initial of bravery. If so, he found out that he had it. Elsie found out that he had it and all these years he has been Sheriff for the people in Grant county have also found it out.

Warren and Elsie were married May 6, 1906 and rented a farm on half mile from the old Gilbert store west of Medford. Uncle Sannie went to live with them. As the babies came, this doting uncle took a new lease on life. He trotted them on his knee, played horse with them, let them ride with him on machinery in the field, bought dollies at Christmas and never forgot the sack of candy when he made a trip to town.

The three youngsters are grown. Flossie is a successful teacher in Grant county and will instruct the pupils at District No. 42 the coming year. Jimmie married James Smidl who is a newspaper man of Gunnison, Colorado. She and her charming little daughter, Sandra Lee are now visiting her parents. Vivian is the wife of Ralph Beggs. Twenty-four years ago, the Northcutts began living on a farm east of Jefferson and since they moved into the sheriffs quarters at the county jail, Vivian and her husband with their little son have made their home on the old farm.

Sannie thought his cup of happiness was filled to the rim with the first set of children to cuddle and love, but with these grandchildren coming on, he almost lives in a dream. With his eyesight enabling him to do his reading, a stroll over town a couple of times a day greeting old friends, a good home, a healthy appetite--what more could be desired? On his last birthday, April 4, Elsie Northcutt invited Ex Parker to a most wonderful birthday dinner. She expects to repeat it this coming April--an the next April--and the next.

It was O.K. for old King Cole to his pipe (Ex and Sannie don't smoke, although the latter nibbles at a plug of Horse Shoe occasionally)--and it is O.K. for the merry old soul to call for his bowl (our four-score-plus take nothing stronger than ginger ale)--with nothing but a little black knob to turn, to bring music of all kins and descriptions from all parts of the globe--these two sons from the old "Sucker" state of Illinois are enjoying to the fullest every waking hour.

Notes

Elsie Cook Northcutt writes about Aunt Tab in her letters (from Roxie Northcutt Johns-Newkirk, OK) to her brother, Sanford: No date on letter

Uncle

Dear Uncle

I received your letter a few days ago-glad to hear you were not sick. We are all better. Aunt Eunice has been feeling real good for nearly a week and I am all right only I have such a horrid old cough. Uncle Owen got me some medicine from the Dr. but it made me puke every time I took the stuff so I have stoped taking it. Uncle Mun has been here since Saturday, he came on the 11x7 (?) train in the morning, he started home today went to the Grove to stay with Uncle Gord's untill tomorrow. leaves there on the afternoon train and has to stay in Junction City untill next day sometime--he is the same Uncle Mun only he look awful bad to me a white and pale but you couldn't get him to say he was sick and he made fun of all the rest of us. he said there wasn't anything that matter with us. he said the girls was having fine times gone some where all the time. he would think it was awful of some of us kids up here did that way. Uncle Gord and Rosa was down Sunday Uncle Gord went home Sunday evening but Rosa stayed untill Monday afternoon and Hazle went home with her. Hazle has been sick to so she went home with Rosa for a while. the rest of Aunt Tab's folks are all feeling well. when are you come up here if you come you will have to come soon won't you. I wish you knew what you were going to do. Do Pa still want to go to Washington. If he is still thinking of going they want you and me to come up here and stay this summer. Mr. Chase was talking about you coming up here to Uncle Owen the other day. he was wanting to know what's the matter with that man, don't he know what he is going to do, about that place. seems to me he would know after while. I was in hopes we could get it. Are Jennie and Ira going to have to move off from there. does Retta (?) folks still think of coming down. I surpose Mr. and Mrs. Holton will be moved by this time. I wonder how Mrs. Parker will like living up by the store again, is John there now --tell him I said "hello". And how long has it been since you seen Pearlie Hickson is he still taking pictures. do they have very many dance's down there. I would like to dance once again I am afarid I will for get how I have leaned Archie how to two-step and Avis will play. we have some great time here sometimes. I guess I will go out and stay all next .....

Barbara, I find it interesting I have had two requests for info on a Ferris/Farris family today.

I do have the following Giffin family members in the Dunlap Cemetery:

Ina E. 12 DEC 1870 - 5 Jan 1939
Henry 1835 - 1913 Father Co. C 14th NYHA
Sarah J. (wf. of Henry) 1843 - 1916
Lillie J. 4 Dec 1874 - 8 Dec 1882

Our marriage records show:

Grace L. Zies, 23 m. William Shaeffer, 22 — Grace b. abt 1880
29 Jan 1903 (b 1881)

Hazel B. Zies, 18 m. Arthur A. Young, 22 — Hazel b. abt 1888
18 Dec 1906 (b 1884)

Luella Zies, 22 M. James Elmer Green, 22 — Luella b abt. 1903
3 Sept 1925 (b 1903)

The Young & Shaeffer families lived in the area in my memory.

Kenny is right about the farming being THE occupation there. Dunlap was settled after the Civil War by black freedmen and they were given 10 acres of land apiece. Today all the black families are gone and so is most of the town, but there is a church. The children attend school in Council Grove.

This is all I find tonight. Thursday I expect to be back in our archives where there are more records and I may find more. I will have checked marriage, cemetery census and community records.

Hope this is a start

Bonnie

Bonnie, I find that interesting also, I have quite a bit of Ferris information. Lydia Ferris married Asa Cook in Deaborn County, Indiana and are the parents of Sarah J. Cook Giffin.

According to Asa and Lydia's son, Sanford Asa Cook's obituary, they went to Dunlap when he was young man. Sanford was born 04 April 1852. They had an older son who died in 1863, so they probably arrived after that. Do not how long they stayed, am looking for where they are buried. Very little family information on them.

In the old pictures there was one with the Zies name on it. Will appreciate anything you might share with me. Thanks...barbara

Subject: Searching for Asa and Lydia Cook

Bonnie, I received a note from Kenny Thomas and he suggested that I contact you.

I searching for my great great grandfather Asa and Lydia Louise (Ferris) Cook believed to have lived in the Dunlap area.

Their son, Sanford Asa Cook lived in Dunlap and was a very active member of the Knights of Pythias- time period about 1905-1930. His obituary indicated he moved as young man to Dunlap with his parents. Sanford's dates are b 1853 (Kendall, IL) d. 27 Oct 1947 (Oklahoma).

I have had Tammy Lillich on USgenweb search the list of cemeteries she has for Morris county and she indicates no Asa or Lydia Cook buried there.

Could you give me some indication of what was going on in the county--just farming? Kenny told me that the county is very hilly and not much more than cattle and farms. What type of records are available for Dunlap? Will appreciate any help you may give.

I know my Giffin family also lived there, moved to LaHarpe, Kansas and are buried in the Dunlap cemetery.
Another name, Zeis or Zies, was in some of the old family letters, but of course no dates.

Sincerely, Barbara Fulton-Bartlesville, OK

Bonnie, I received a note from Benny Thomas and he suggested that I contact you.

I am looking for my great great grandfather Asa and Lydia Louise (Perry) Cook believed to have lived in the Dunlap area.

Their son, Benford Asa Cook lived in Dunlap and was a very active member of the Knights of Pythias- time period about 1903-1910. His obituary indicated he moved as young man to Dunlap with his parents. Benford's date was c 1857 (Sandell, ID) d. 27 Oct 1947 (Oklahoma).

I have had Penny Lillick on Ogpunnah search the list of cemeteries she has for Morris county and she indicates no Asa or Lydia Cook buried there.

Could you give me some indication of what was going on in the county--most fleeting. Penny told me that the county is very hilly and got much corn from cattle and farms. What type of records are available for Dunlap? Will appreciate any help you may give.

I know my Collin family also lived there, moved to DeKalb. Frances and are buried in the Dunlap cemetery.
Another name, Dela or Ilen, was in some of the old family letters, but of course no dates.

Sincerely, Barbara Fulton-Bartlesville, OK

Kenny, thanks for the most informative reply and prompt, too! I am hoping sometime later to make a trip up that way, my Giffin grandparents are buried in the Dunlap cemetery and have some old pictures of the cemetery and the stones. Just recently acquired the obituary of one of the Cook sons and it stated that he lived in Dunlap also, so this was hope that perhaps they were also buried there. So the search goes on! I especially want to thank you for the description and for Bonnie McClintock's name, I might have found it but you have made the contact name more quickly accessible. Again thanks, you have been a great help and oh, yes, Tammy Lillich as returned my query about the cemeteries and there are no Cooks recorded. Again THANKS! barbara

Hey there Barbara!
First let me begin with, I have posted your surnames to the Morris County Surname Pages!

Well, Dunlap today is practically a ghost town, run down real bad. It was and still is farming land, good river bottom kind of land, it's right near the Neosho River, so in the days of old, I imagine that it flooded quite regularly so it was good crop land. Now, directly (within a couple of miles) the land abruptly changes to one better suited for cattle grazing, as this is the edge of the Flint Hills.
You know, I've asked myself this many, many times. My Great-Grandfather's family had immigrated from England to Wisconsin, then a couple of years later they sold their farm and moved to were they homesteaded near Dunlap (the river just a few hundred feet away), I went searching for the old homestead a couple of years ago, kinda got lost in the Flint Hills there, but right before I found the place I topped a big hill, the view was so beautiful I had to stop, could see the whole valley (if that's what to call it), right then I think to this day that that was the reason my line settled there. I may be really wrong, but the view was just so amazing...
But I do think that land was offered real cheap if any cost at all in the earliest of days, I know that after the Civil War Union veterans were given land, but this line of mine came at least ten years prior.
Dunlap is about 5-7 miles SSE of Council Grove, and remember Council Grove was the last stop before heading out on the Santa Fe Trail.
Now, I may be totally off the mark with all of this, you might want to talk with Bonnie McClintock of the Morris County Historical Society and get a more professional view on this.

Hey there Barbara!

Well, Dunlap today is practically a ghost town, run down real bad. It was and still is farming land, good river bottom kind of land. It's right near the Neosho River, so in the days of old, I imagine that it flooded quite regularly so it was good crop land. Now, directly within a couple of miles the land abruptly changes to one better suited for cattle grazing, as this is the edge of the Flint Hills.

You know, I've never myself this many, many times. My Great-Grandfather's family has migrated from England to Wisconsin, then a couple of years later they were into Ohio here and moved to were they homesteaded near Dunlap (the center just a few hundred feet away). I went searching for the old homestead a couple of years ago. Kinda got lost in the Flint Hills there, but from before I found the place I topped a big hill, the view was so mesmerizing I had to stop, could see the whole valley (if that's what to call it), right then I think to this day that that was the reason my line settled there. I may be really wrong, but the view was just so amazing... But I do think that land was offered real cheap if any cost at all in the earliest of days, I know that after the Civil War Union veterans were given land, but this line of mine came at least ten years prior.
